

WOY MROZEK – Concert Clarinetist – Virtuoso

According to Yehudi Menuhin, what characterizes Mr Mrozek's playing is "...an excellent technique, remarkable musical intelligence, warm sound, as well as spontaneity and emotionalism..."

(Yehudi Menuhin , Munich 10 March 1997)

One of the most eminent and unique contemporary clarinetist - virtuoso, consistently going beyond the traditional attitude towards the musician's profession – the instrumentalist extending the range of his creative activity almost every month.

He commenced clarinet at age 15 and, from the age of 17, began concertising. He studied in the Warsaw Music Academy, after completion of which, continued learning in master classes in Munich Hochschule fur Musik. He was the winner of the prestigious International Clarinet Competition in Poznan, and the First Prize at the Interacademic Clarinet Competition in Munich-Germany. The German Federal Government, awarded him a bursary for 2 years' study, and the Yamaha Foundation for remarkably talented artists gave him a scholarship.

As conductor, soloist and composer, he has given concerts all over the world.

In 2006 /07 he composed and recorded a Symphonic Mass in 15 Movements for John Paul II, commissioned by the Polish Government, to commemorate 1000 years of the Polish Catholic Church.

From 2003, he has also performed successfully on board Oceania and Regent Seven Seas Cruises and from 2011 on board the Seabourn, Princess, Cristal and Cunard Cruises, Royal Caribbean Cruises, Holland America Cruises showing that he also is versatile in the genres of swing, world and popular music.

He has recorded 32 CD's, and 10 DVD's.

Kontakt: AVIP Group, www.avip.pl , email: woymrozek@gmail.com
tel. +48-600 384750 / 743